

Participant Behavior Waiver

This waiver has been created in the best interest of your child, and will highlight our efforts to ensure a successful and positive experience for you and your child during their Regina Humane Society (RHS) program experience.

While participating in RHS programming, please be certain that both you and your child are completely familiar with the following RHS program policy. 2. Refusing to remain with the assigned group or running away from RHS staff without permission.
3. Inappropriate conversations, profanity, or abusive language.
4. Defacing or stealing property of RHS program participants, staff, volunteers, etc.
5. Possessing, supplying, or using illegal substances including but not limited to alcohol and prescription medications.
6. Fighting by any means of physical or verbal aggression, including provoking or bullying.
