

Supplies

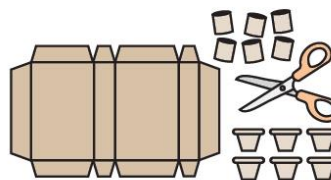

- Three empty toilet paper rolls
- One empty cereal box
- One empty paper egg carton
- Scissors
- Hot glue gun
- Handful of small cat treats

1

Step One

Unfold the empty cereal box and lay it flat. Using the scissors, cut the three empty toilet paper rolls in half. Next, cut the empty egg carton to separate each egg holder.

Remember: Scissors are sharp – don't be afraid to ask for help!

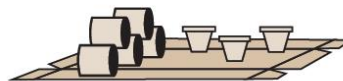

2

Step Two

Warm-up the hot glue gun. While waiting, on top of the flattened cereal box, plan a unique design using the rolls and egg holders to hide small cat treats.

Remember: Hot glue guns are hot - don't be afraid to ask for help!

3

Step Three

Place thin lines of glue to secure pieces of your design together. Wait 15 minutes for the glue to cool before placing the treats in their hiding spots!

Remember: Hot glue guns are hot - don't be afraid to ask for help!

Feather Cork

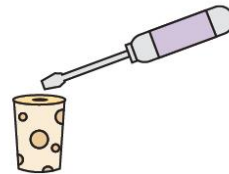

Supplies

- One bottle cork
- One craft feather
- Hot glue gun
- Poker tool

1 Step One

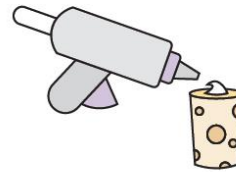

Using the poker tool, make a small hole at the top of the bottle cork.

2 Step Two

Warm-up the hot glue gun. When it's ready, place a small dot of glue on the hole at the top of the bottle cork.

Remember: Hot glue guns are hot - don't be afraid to ask for help!

3 Step Three

Before the glue dries, push the quill of the craft feather into the hole. Wait 15 minutes for the glue to cool before using.

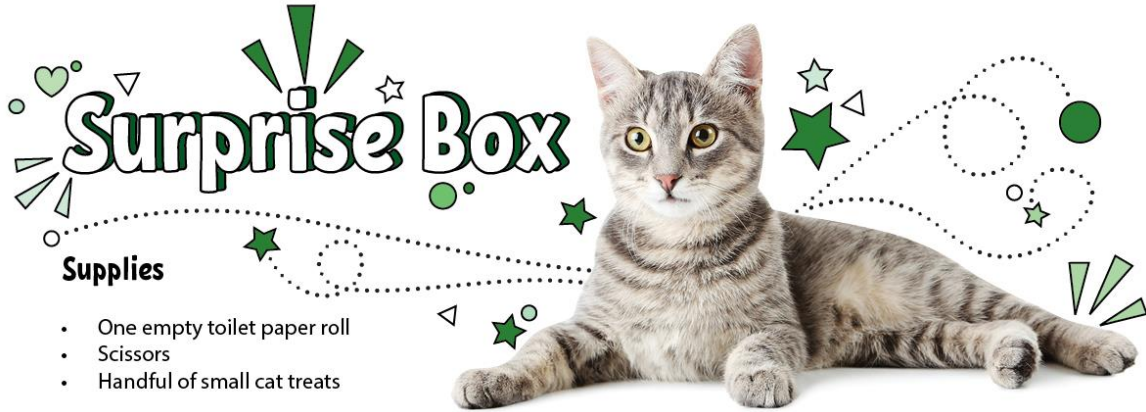

Remember: Hot glue guns are hot - don't be afraid to ask for help!

1

Step One

Using scissors, cut out three small holes or geometric shapes on the outside of the empty paper towel roll.

Remember: Scissors are sharp – don't be afraid to ask for help!

2

Step Two

Fold in one end of the roll to close the roll. Through the opposite open end, fill the roll with a few small cat treats.

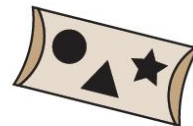

3

Step Three

Fold in the remaining open end of the roll to hold the treats inside. Now it's time to let your cat play, and enjoy the treats as they fall out through the holes!

Catnip Sock

Supplies

- One sock
- Handful of cotton balls
- A pinch of catnip

1 Step One

Stuff the sock with the cotton balls until a round palm size form is created.

2 Step Two

Mix a pinch of catnip into the sock and softly knead to ensure the catnip covers the cotton balls equally.

3 Step Three

Tie off the opening of the sock to enclose the cotton balls and catnip. Time to play!
